

Canada Soccer Intermediaries Code of Professional Conduct

1. The intermediary is required to perform his activities conscientiously and conduct himself in his profession and other business practices in a manner worthy of respect and befitting his profession.
2. The intermediary agrees unconditionally to abide by the regulations, statutes, by-laws, directives and decisions of the competent bodies of FIFA, the confederations, national associations and Canada Soccer.
3. The intermediary shall always adhere to the truth, clarity and objectivity in his dealings with his client, negotiating partners and other parties.
4. The intermediary shall protect the interests of his client in compliance with the law and a sense of fairness, while creating clear legal relations.
5. The intermediary shall, without fail, respect the rights of his negotiating partners and third parties. In particular, he/she shall respect the contractual relations of his professional colleagues and shall refrain from any action that could entice clients away from other parties.
6. The intermediary shall:
 - a. Conduct a minimum of bookkeeping on his business activity. In particular, he shall ensure that he can provide evidence of his activity at any time by means of documents and other records;
 - b. Keep all of the books conscientiously and detail his business activity faithfully in other records;
 - c. At the request of any authorities conducting an investigation into disciplinary cases and other disputes, produce books and records directly connected with the case in point; and
 - d. Produce an invoice showing his fees, expenses and any other charges upon first demand from his client.
7. The intermediary agrees to take any domestic disputes before the Canada Soccer Players Status Committee and to exhaust the Canada Soccer appeal process before taking disputes to the ordinary courts of law. The intermediary is required to submit any claim to the jurisdiction of Canada Soccer.

With his signature, the intermediary accepts the above.

Place and date:

The Intermediary:

For Canada Soccer: